PREAMBLE:

The University of Agricultural Sciences, Bangalore, has upheld the values of holistic education, recognizing both academic excellence and extracurricular activities that encourages leadership, discipline, and a sense of national pride. The National Cadet Corps (NCC) and National Service Scheme (NSS) have been instrumental in instilling these qualities in students, preparing them to serve society with a sense of responsibility and dedication. Participation in the Republic Day Parade is a prestigious achievement that reflects a student's commitment to excel in extracurricular activities. In recognition of these outstanding contributions, the University has decided to introduce an award for Master degree student/s that will support such students in their pursuit of higher education. This initiative aligns with the University's commitment to nurture individuals who have demonstrated a commendable spirit of service and discipline. By extending financial incentive to deserving students, the University aims to motivate more students to actively engage themselves in such programs which have national pride.

Further, Incentive of Rs. 5,000/- per month along with an annual contingency of Rs. 50,000/- (Totally Rs. 1,10,000/- per annum per student) based on the recommendations of the HoD of the concerned department will be awarded for the eligible students. The said item was discussed and approved in 25th PG Board of Studies. Hence, the proposal was placed in the 201st Academic Council and the same was approved only for those students who have completed their UG degree programme from UASB. Hence, this Notification.
